Dear Karin

Let me indeed confirm that the European Commission will, as always, contribute actively in the steering committee tomorrow. Luc Bagur from DG AIDCO will participate.

The Commission is very much committed to transparency and mutual accountability, and also to ensure that commitments are translated into tangible and realistic actions at EU level. As proposed by the Commission and endorsed by Council in its conclusions from June 14th, we will come with proposals on mutual accountability and transparency in the form of a fourth chapter of the Operational Framework.

Kind regards.
